

Consortium for Undergraduate Law and Justice Programs Program Information

Name of College/University

Name of Undergraduate Program

Date

---

I. Program Information

Are you a program, a department, a center, or something else? (Please explain.)

Are you embedded within a traditional disciplinary department, or are you independent?

How are you governed? (Departmental structure? Board?)

Do you have dedicated faculty lines?

Do you participate in a 3+3 program with a law school?

When was your program established?

Do you anticipate any changes to your program in the near future?

II. Requirements and Courses

Do you offer a major? Minor? Certificate?

How many courses are required for your major/minor?

What classes are required for the major?

Any distribution requirements?

Do you have a thesis or capstone experience? Is it required?

What is the distribution between classes offered by your program and classes elsewhere in the university?

Do you offer prelaw advising?

Does your program offer internships? May students count internships toward the major/minor/certificate requirements?

Does your program engage in experiential or service learning?

Do your students engage in undergraduate research?

III. Faculty

What disciplines do your faculty come from?

Do your faculty attend meetings of the Law and Society Association?

Do your faculty attend meetings of the Association for the Study of Law, Culture and the Humanities?

IV. Outcomes

How many graduates do you have yearly (on average)?

What do your students go on to do?

Is there anything else you'd like to tell us about your program?

Thank you for providing us with this information about your program! Please email this form to culjp.admnstrtr@gmail.com.